THE HOLY NAME

Oakley

Welcome to Fr Jimmy Smith, one of our retired priests, who will be helping out over the next month.

Fr Jimmy will celebrate the Sunday Mass in Holy Name this weekend.

The Bishop of Orlu in Nigeria has given his permission and supplied all of the necessary references for

Fr Augustus Duruiheakor

to come to St Margaret's and assist in the parishes.

The Diocesan Office is now working on a visa for him. Until that comes through, we'll try and cobble something together!

BAPTISM	Congratulations and welcome to Aldo McDonald and Gray Alan McPherson who will be baptised in St Margaret's this weekend
NOTE	Would the parents of any child who does not attend a catholic school and is at the stage for sacramental preparation (P4) please speak to Fr Heenan as soon as possible. Preparation classes for older children who have not been confirmed (P7 and above) will begin in the new year.
NEXT WEEK	World Mission Sunday There will be a special collection at all Masses. Gift Aid Declarations for Missio are available this weekend. Please take home and complete if you are a tax payer and return next week – this is the only way Missio can claim gift aid as it is not linked to any parish declarations.
