ST MARGARET'S

Dunfermline

CHURCH OF THE HOLY NAME

Oakley

Many thanks to all who worked so hard to prepare for the Christmas Services – those who worked behind the scenes cleaning & preparing the Church and organizing rotas and to all the musicians, servers, readers and ministers of communion.

All of your hard work was most appreciated by everyone who attended the Christmas Services.

Father Heenan and Father Augustus would like to thank everyone for their cards, gifts, prayers and good wishes at this time.

May you all have a happy and healthy New Year.

There has been an overwhelming response to our appeal for food donations, money & vouchers for our SVDP Christmas drive to feed and support the many needy families and individuals within our parish and surrounding parishes. There was an absolutely terrific response to our hamper raffle within the church. These funds are invaluable to support our efforts.

A big thank you to Andy Calan who donated free the use of the units at Lynburn Industrial Estate. It has truly been a godsend.

To the ladies of St Margaret's who packed an dwrapped nonstop, in particular 3 volunteers (Susan, Anne and Agnes) who worked tirelessly to source the impossible.

Big thanks to David Hunter, Eric Jay and Colin who diligently delivered the said food packages and presents to homes. Also many thanks to SVDP Oakley, Rosyth and OLL for their great efforts in the packing and distribution.

We at the SVdP wholly support social work, Penumbra and many more frontline charities passing on your donated furniture food and monetary gifts – not just at Christmas. It is your donations which make it possible. Thank you.
