“A Chance to Remember”

we are holding an evening service to remember and thank God for the lives of our diseased parishioners and friends who were called for their eternal abode from November 2020 onwards. As the Covid pandemic had restricted our attendance, especially at the funeral liturgies of families and friends, it may be a chance to remember all those who have passed away during this difficult time. Please invite your friends who have lost their loved ones, to light a candle before the Alter. The service will take place at St Margaret's on Tuesday 2nd November at 6.00pm and in Holy Name on Wednesday 3rd November at 6.00pm.

St Margaret's Feast 2021

The Feast of St Margaret, the patroness of Scotland and of our Parish, will be solemnly celebrated with nine days of Novena and Holy Masses, starting from Monday 8th November. Being the Archdiocesan pilgrimage centre, there will be liturgical participation from other Catholic denominations and ethnic, linguistic and ritual groups. The culmination of the celebration will be on Tuesday 16 November with the solemn mass by the Archbishop Leo Cushley at 7.00pm. The details of the program will be followed soon.

Appreciations:

I wish to sincerely thank every one of you beloved parishioners, for the complimentary cards, cakes and sweeties coupled with the prayerful wishes that I received from many of you on the occasion of the my birth's anniversary. You are cherished and loved by me. "Avo so" (Thanks immensely).
