It has 12 sessions and will be every first Tuesday of the month (except for the 27th). The course is similar to "The Gift" being run cafe style with light refreshments, a video talk then small group sharing. Start 18:30 finish 20:00. Each attendee is encouraged to purchase a workbook which also contains a DVD with all the talks so even if you are not able to attend all sessions you can keep up to date at home. Formal registration is not required but if you feel drawn to attend the course it would be appreciated if you would contact David about the purchase of the workbook/DVD. A discount price of £9.00 has been given to us by CaFE and there are 15 books immediately available. See poster at the back of the church or contact David 01383 872739, email dhambleyuk@yahoo.co.uk

Teas and Toast after Sunday morning Mass

Happily this will resume on Sunday 25th Aug and run until Sunday 29th Sept. There will be a break for the Oct holiday, hopefully resuming on Sunday 27th Oct. I say, hopefully, as we need volunteers to make it so. None of the dates are filled for after the Oct break. Please come down to support this on the Sundays it runs and definitely consider volunteering a Sunday to enable this much needed social contact to continue. If you would like to give one Sunday morning to this, please contact me personally, put your name on the list while at the T&T or on cjm909@btinternet.com Thank you. Charlotte Macintosh

SPOTLIGHT: PARISH PASSKEEPERS

You are probably reading this week's focus article from a bulletin handed to you by one of the church passkeepers as you entered the church.

This small group of volunteers assist Fr Syriac and our parish community by welcoming, directing and assisting parishioners and visitors at each Mass, ensuring that services run smoothly. You will recognise the photographs of some familiar faces who are regular helpers at the 5.30pm, 9.30am and 11am parish services. There are many other volunteers who help out on occasion when the need arises.

DUTIES

Passkeeper duties start before Mass in helping with any parking issues and trying to ensure that the area in front of the main doors is kept clear for emergency vehicles and as a safe piazza for parishioners to mingle and chat after services. The passkeepers welcome the congregation as they enter the building, distributing bulletins, hymn books and leaflets as required. They take special care of any elderly parishioners and those with special needs.

During Mass, passkeepers are responsible for organising the Offertory Procession and ensuring that any collections are undertaken with as little disruption to the service as possible. At Communion, they direct communicants to approach the altar ensuring a steady flow in the aisles. They also alert eucharistic ministers to anyone who cannot go forward.

At the end of Mass, passkeepers do a quick sweep of the church to ensure that it is left tidy and secure. The passkeepers have a representative from both Holy Name and St. Margaret's on the Parish Liturgy Committee to help to plan the annual Liturgical Calendar and to contribute to preparations and arrangements for special services. This includes Advent, Lent, Eastertide. St Margaret's etc. It is an important part of our service to the Lord to contribute to the celebration of Mass by helping as a passkeeper.

WHO?

Anyone, male or female, of any age can be a passkeeper. That can be as someone to be called on when the need arises or, better still, to volunteer on a regular basis. If you are interested, please give your details to Fr Syriac or any of the regular faces!

LtoR: Ben Conway, Neil Walker, Iain Little & Peter Whyte

A CANADIAN TOURIST'S FEEDBACK

On Sun 4th Aug, my entire family joined Sunday Mass with all of you. My parents were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, and we all gathered in Scotland for the occasion.

When we arrived to Mass, your passkeepers were so welcoming and we couldn't believe how quickly you mobilized to make the Mass special for my parents. We went on a lot of amazing adventures while we were in Scotland, but my parents both agree that Mass was their favourite part of the trip.

That is in huge thanks to all of you at St. Margaret's that made them feel honoured and blessed. So I just wanted to take a minute and thank you for that.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

20TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (B)

FIRST READING Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom has built herself a house, she has erected her seven pillars, she has slaughtered her beasts, prepared her wine, she has laid her table.

She has despatched her maidservants and proclaimed from the city's heights: 'Who is ignorant? Let him step this way.' To the fool she says, 'Come and eat my bread, drink the wine I have prepared! Leave your folly and you will live, walk in the ways of perception.'

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

SECOND READING Ephesians 5:15-20

Be very careful about the sort of lives you lead, like intelligent and not like senseless people. This may be a wicked age, but you redeem it. And do not be thoughtless but recognise what is the will of the Lord. Do not drug yourselves with wine, this is simply dissipation; be filled with the Spirit.

Sing the words and tunes of the psalms and hymns when you are together, and go on singing and chanting to the Lord in your hearts, so that always and everywhere you are giving thanks to God who is our Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

GOSPEL John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowd: 'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you. Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him. As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me. This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

The Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 33(34):2-3,10-15

Taste and see that the Lord is good.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Jn1:14,12

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Word was made flesh and lived among us:
to all who did accept him
he gave power to become children of God.
Alleluia!

THE NICENE

("Niceno-Constantinopolitan") Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
