The Big Picture

Session 2 of The Big Picture is in St Margaret's Crypt on Tuesday 10th Sept 6.30-8pm. In this session entitled " God" we will be introduced to our God of Love and Surprises. Each participant has their own DVD so if you missed Session 1 you can catch up at home.

Ladies Group

There will be a Ladies' Steering Group meeting in the crypt on Tuesday 24 September 2024 starting at 7pm. Every woman in the Parish of St Margaret's and Holy Name is welcome. This meeting is to decide the programme for the coming year. We look forward to welcoming you.

Disabled Parking Bays

A gentle reminder that only persons with a valid Blue Badge are permitted to park in the designated disabled parking bays. Please display your Blue badge at all times in your vehicle whilst parked in the church car park.

Parish Golf Outing

Congratulations to Paul Healy, the winner of the Parish golf competition on Sun 1 Sept. Paul triumphed over a strong field of 12 keen golfers who all enjoyed a cool, dry day and a fine Bill O' Fayre at Pitreavie golf club. Thanks to all for donation of prizes which were shared out to all. See you all next year.

Catholic Families for Life

Newsletter from the National Commission for Marriage, Family and Life - latest version can be found at www.marriagefamilyandlife.org.uk

Feedback on the Ministry of Fr Syriac

As Fr Syriac has completed 3 years of ministry at St. Margaret's he would like to hear feedback from you. There are feedback forms at the back of the church, which can be returned in the feedback box or posted to the presbytery on or before 30th Sep. Forms can be returned anonymously if you wish.

RCIA

The RCIA will start soon. Would you please take this invitation to a family member or friend that you know who may be interested in learning the Catholic faith and get into full communion with the church. The welcome is extended also to all those who wish to return to the Catholic faith. To enquire further, please contact the Parish office: priest.stmargaretdunfermline@staned.org.uk or George Toal on: georgetoal@btinternet.com

Sick of the Parish

We would like to ask your prayers for Margaret McPherson, Anne Donaldson, Nan Lomas, John Tonner, Margaret Fotheringham, Jim Cusick, Janet McIlwaine, Moira McGuigan, May Reid, Ann Begg, Esther Wren and Margaret & Joe Wilson during their period of illness. If you would like to add a family member to be remembered in the bidding prayers, please complete the form which are at the back of the church, and inform us when their names are to be removed from the list.

Vocations Awareness Week

Vocations Awareness Week begins this Sunday and it is a chance for us to pray for those considering the priesthood or religious life, that they may hear God's call and respond with joyful hearts. We pray especially for Gerard Holden and Matthew McCafferty, seminarians of the Archdiocese, as well as for priests across the Archdiocese who are giving their life in service of the Church. If you want to explore the priesthood or religious life, have a chat with the Archdiocesan Vocations Director Monsignor Patrick Burke on 01334 472 856 (vocations@staned.org.uk) or Sister Mirjam Hugens, Director for Religious Vocations, on 0131 623 8902, (religiousvocations@staned.org.uk). SPOTLIGHT: EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION (EMHC)

The Second Vatican Council, with its Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity, states that it is essential to the nature of the Church to have the major involvement of the laity in the evangelizing mission of the Church. The introduction of lay men and lay women as Special Ministers of Communion now carries forward this tradition of lay involvement. Yes, the Church in its wisdom and pastoral concern, clearly makes provision for trained, approved, and commissioned lay men and women to assist the priest as EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION.

As part of this overall movement to make the Church the family, to encourage more and more Catholics to be active in their church, and to make the Sunday Mass more of a celebration of the family of God, the Church thus permitted and encouraged the introduction of the practice of EMHC. In 1973 Pope Paul VI issued an Instruction which permitted men and women to assist in the distribution of Holy Communion. In this way, he was reviving a custom and tradition of the early Christian Church.

Two main situations were given by the Church in the Instruction on Facilitating Sacramental Eucharistic Communion in Particular Circumstances:

1. During Mass: because of the size of the congregation
2. Outside Mass: when the number of the sick and house bound, especially in hospitals and similar institutions, requires many ministers.

The commissioning of lay ministers will enable the gift of the Eucharist to be brought to the sick, the aged, the infirm in their homes/hospitals on Sundays or other days.

Estelle Holligan, Coordinator of the EMHC says:

"I attend mass at St. Margaret's on a Wednesday morning and receive the Blessed Sacrament from the priest after Communion. I then go directly to the hospital. I ask the patient if they wish to receive Holy Communion. Usually they do, but if they just want a prayer or someone to listen to them then that is also perfectly acceptable. If they want to receive Holy Communion, then I normally partially shut the curtains to allow a degree of privacy. There is a short, but spiritual, service to prepare for Holy Communion. This can be shortened further if required depending on the patient's needs. If relatives are present, I invite them to take part in the service if they wish. I have had very positive responses from the patients that I have visited. Receiving Christ in the Eucharist brings them some peace and comfort and they know that they are still part of the Catholic Community even when they can't attend mass, which is SO important"

Who can be an EMHC?

The person appointed to be an EMHC is necessarily to be duly instructed and should distinguish himself or herself by his or her Christian life, faith, and morals. Let him or her strive to be worthy of this great office; let him or her cultivate devotion to the Holy Eucharist and show him or herself as an example to the other faithful by his or her piety and reverence for this most Holy sacrament of the altar.

Those who are selected, therefore, should demonstrate a mature Christian lifestyle which is characterized by faith, charity, prayerfulness, good moral character, service and stability. Their lives should reflect both love for the Eucharist and the desire to serve Christ in others. They should be practicing Catholics who are actively involved in the sacramental life of the Church.

In principle EMHC are commissioned for service within their Parish alone. To serve outside the bounds of their parish (even for a single event) they must be commissioned by the Parish Priest of the respective Parish. It is standard practice that EMHC generally serves term of three years with the possibility of a renewal of service in increments of three years.

The Second Vatican Council declared that the Holy Eucharist is the centre and summit of the life of the Church. It means therefore that there is nothing that happens in the Church which is more important than the Holy Eucharist. That is why everything concerning the Holy Eucharist must be considered of utmost importance. Becoming an EMHC is not a privilege, rather, it is a call and a mission with greater commitment.

CURRENT EMHC NO.S

CHURCH - SM-18 EMHC, HN-13 EMHC

HOSPITAL - SM-1 EMHC

HOMES / CARE HOMES - SM-7 EMHC, HN-2 EMHC

Our 7 EMHC at St. Margaret's currently visit 30 parishioners and our 2 EMHC at Holy Name visit 5 parishioners, on a weekly or fortnightly basis.

If you know of any Catholic patient in Queen Margaret Hospital, or a housebound in the parish who may like to receive Holy Communion, then please contact: priest.stmargaretdunfermline@staned.org.uk

Prayer of the Eucharist Ministers

Heavenly Father, we thank you for calling us to serve you and your people in our communities as Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist. You know that we could never be worthy of such an exalted honour. Help us to be less unworthy by remaining free from sin. Let us nourish your people with the witness of our lives as we feed them with the Body of Christ. Grant your strength and holiness to all your Special Ministers and make them worthy to bring Christ to others. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

23RD SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (B)

FIRST READING

Isaiah 35:4-7

Say to all faint hearts,
'Courage! Do not be afraid.
Look, your God is coming,
vengeance is coming,
the retribution of God;
he is coming to save you.'

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy; for water gushes in the desert, streams in the wasteland, the scorched earth becomes a lake, the parched land springs of water.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

SECOND READING

James 2:1-5

My brothers, do not try to combine faith in Jesus Christ, our glorified Lord, with the making of distinctions between classes of people. Now suppose a man comes into your synagogue, beautifully dressed and with a gold ring on, and at the same time a poor man comes in, in shabby clothes, and you take notice of the well-dressed man, and say, 'Come this way to the best seats'; then you tell the poor man, 'Stand over there' or 'You can sit on the floor by my foot-rest.' Can't you see that you have used two different standards in your mind, and turned yourselves into judges, and corrupt judges at that?

Listen, my dear brothers: it was those who are poor according to the world that God chose, to be rich in faith and to be the heirs to the kingdom which he promised to those who love him.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

GOSPEL

Mark 7:31-37

Returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha', that is, 'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

The Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

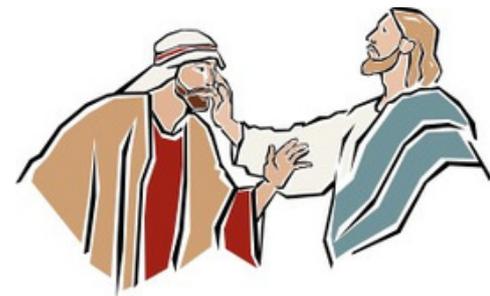

Psalms 145(146):7-10

My soul, give praise to the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1S3:9, Jn6:68

Alleluia, alleluia!
Speak, Lord, your servant is listening:
you have the message of eternal life.
Alleluia!

THE NICENE ("Niceno-Constantinopolitan") Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
