SPOTLIGHT: SEASON OF ADVENT

Each week, during the season of advent, we will be reflecting on themes and scripture as we prepare for the celebration of the birth of Lord Jesus Christ.

Advent week 3 : Joy in Reconciliation

This week we consider how the Old Testament relates how The Fall impacted the descendants of Adam and Eve and how they worked to reconcile their differences to be closer to God.

God sent his Son to save us from sin, and He stands at the door to our hearts, waiting for us to open it. We can repair the damage caused by sin through examining our conscience (e.g. review the Ten Commandments, Beatitudes), confessing our sins and, receiving absolution and penance as we are healed through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Adam & Eve

Because Adam and Eve ate the fruit off the tree that God commanded them not to eat from, they are banished from the garden. Exiled. They ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, and now they are cut off from the tree of life. (Genesis 3)

Jacob

In Genesis 28, we hear how Jacob had a vision from God, reiterating the promise He made with Abraham and that he would be with him in the future. This may appear as a surprise following the events in Genesis 25, but it shows the depth of God's forgiveness.

Joseph

The story of Joseph shows many layers of forgiveness following the actions of his brothers (Genesis 37:3-33) and their reconciliation in Egypt (Genesis 43-46).

David

David as king faced many challenges and questionable choices but managed to reconcile his differences with God and instigated the Psalms of praise for His mercy. (2 Samuel 2, 5, 7; Psalms incl. 23, 145). He was the first - but not the only - shepherd-King.

Elijah

Elijah was a prophet tasked by God to reconcile a nation back to him. Through God's demonstration (1 Kings 18:17-39) we learn of the power of action and then the joy when Elijah met God in the peace (1 Kings 19).

SCRIPTUREREADINGS

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT - GAUDETE SUNDAY - YEAR (A)

FIRST READING

Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad;
the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus;
it shall blossom abundantly
and rejoice with joy and singing.

The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,
the majesty of Carmel and Sharon.
They shall see the glory of the Lord,
the majesty of our God.

Strengthen the weak hands,
and make firm the feeble knees.
Say to those who have an anxious heart,
'Be strong; fear not!
Behold, your God will come with vengeance,
with the recompense of God.
He will come and save you.'
Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped;
then shall the lame man leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the mute sing for joy.
And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Sion with singing;
everlasting joy shall be upon their heads;
they shall obtain gladness and joy,
and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

SECOND READING

James 5:7-10

Be patient, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. Do not grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. As an example of suffering and patience, brothers and sisters, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL

Matthew 11:2-11

At that time: When John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, 'Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?'

And Jesus answered them, 'Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. And blessed is the one who is not offended by me.'

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

'What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written,

"Behold, I send my messenger before your face,

who will prepare your way before you."
'Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 146(145):6c-7. 8-9a. 9b-10. R Matthew

5:3

Come, Lord, and save us.
or: Alleluia.

Gospel Acclamation

Isaiah 61:1 (Luke 4:18)

Alleluia, alleluia.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he has sent me to proclaim good news to the poor.
Alleluia.

THE NICENE ("Niceno-Constantinopolitan") Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Additional Hymn for 13 & 14 Dec

He Comes to Us

He comes to us as one unknown,
a breath unseen, unheard;
as though within a heart of stone,
or shriveled seed in darkness sown,
a pulse of being stirred,
a pulse of being stirred.

He comes when souls in silence lie
and thoughts of day depart;
half-seen upon the inward eye,
a falling star across the sky
of night within the heart,
of night within the heart.

He comes to us in sound of seas,
the ocean's fume and foam;
yet small and still upon the breeze,
a wind that stirs the tops of trees,
a voice to call us home,
a voice to call us home.

He comes in love as once he came
by flesh and blood and birth;
to bear within our mortal frame
a life, a death, a saving Name,
for every child of earth,
for every child of earth.

He comes in truth when faith is grown;
believed, obeyed, adored:
the Christ in all the Scriptures shown,
as yet unseen, but not unknown,
our Saviour and our Lord,
our Saviour and our Lord.
